ABOUT THE ADVISORY BOARD

The purpose of the board for the One-Eighty Teen Center of Lodi is to provide assistance and expanded resources to the staff running the center. The center will be operated under the auspices of First Baptist Church of Lodi so that one entity bears the responsibility to see that this ministry thrives and is accountable for legal and financial matters. The teen center is envisioned, however, as a ministry and service of the whole community. Its scope lies beyond the people, vision, influence or financial abilities of any one church. Therefore, the board will operate more closely with the Executive Director of the center than the church or the board at First Baptist Church, but will not have to bear the same legal and financial responsibilities.

We seek members of the board who can provide counsel concerning our community involvement. We also ask the board help with fundraising and in making contacts with influential persons and organizations within the community who can enhance this ministry in various ways. The Board will meet with the Executive Director twice a year. Membership on the Advisory Board will be at the discretion of each member and the Executive Director.

ONE EIGHTY TEEN CENTER MISSION STATEMENT

The One-Eighty Teen Center is a church based, private, non-profit organization whose mission is to “provide a fun, positive, and safe place for teens of Lodi. This is done through meaningful activities, mentoring relationships and support systems that encourage spiritual growth and promote positive development and healthy decisions.”
